How To Write Teacher's Books Sep 18 2021 In this book, experienced Teacher's Book writers, Mike Sayer and Ros Wright, demystify the process of creating teacher's materials. The role of the Teacher's Book writer is examined, along with a detailed breakdown of all the essential elements that need to be included in an excellent Teacher's Book. The importance of this component shouldn't be underestimated - it's the key to successful delivery of the student's material, effective classroom management, and much more. This book provides: - a checklist of the type of information to cover in all types of Teacher's Books.- a discussion of the differences between a general English Teacher's Book and an ESP Teacher's Book.- a breakdown of the additional requirements when the teacher isn't a content expert in the students' field.- tasks, commentaries and a glossary of terms. This book forms part of the ELT Teacher 2 Writer training course. The course is designed to help you write better ELT materials, either for publication, or simply to improve the quality of your self-produced classroom materials

Phonics for Pupils with Special Educational Needs Book 1: Building Basics Jul 29 2022 Phonics for Pupils with Special Educational Needs is a complete, structured, multisensory programme for teaching reading and spelling, making it fun and accessible for all. This fantastic seven-part resource offers a refreshingly simple approach to the teaching of phonics, alongside activities to develop auditory and visual perceptual skills. Specifically designed to meet the needs of pupils of any age with special educational needs, the books break down phonics into manageable core elements and provide a huge wealth of resources to support teachers in teaching reading and spelling. Book 1: Building Basics introduces basic sounds and explores their relationship with letters. It focuses on sounds and letters where there is a simple 1:1 correspondence between the two, and explores the sounds in simple words that follow the pattern of vowel-consonant or consonant-vowel-consonant. Sounds are grouped into seven sets, with each set containing more than 50 engaging activities, including: sound story, dynamic blending, reading race, spot the word and spelling challenge. Thorough guidance is provided on how to deliver each activity, as well as a lesson planner template, handy word lists and posters for teachers and teaching assistants to use to support learning. Each book in the series gradually builds on children's understanding of sounds and letters and provides scaffolded support for children to learn about every sound in the English language. Offering tried and tested material which can be photocopied for each use, this is an invaluable resource to simplify phonics teaching for teachers and teaching assistants and provide fun new ways of learning phonics for all children. This book is accompanied by a companion resource, 'Phonics for Pupils with Complex SEND', to be used alongside the Phonics for Pupils with Special Educational Needs programme. The activities from Books 1-6 of the programme are adapted to be accessible for non-verbal pupils, including AAC users, and those with physical disabilities.
